520-333-3320 Consultations

Strength-Based Support

For children who are not yet achieving their school potential due to emotional or behavioral issues, Intuition Wellness Center's team is here to serve. We provide customized packages that support children in getting the most out of their schooling. Our team will complete sensitive and thorough information-gathering, provide detailed and individualized recommendations and deliver one-time or ongoing consultation to families and school personnel. We work with preschools all the way up!
